

AUSTRALIAN PASSPORTS: PROCEDURE FOR APPLYING FOR YOUR FIRST ADULT PASSPORT

It normally takes about twelve weeks to receive a full validity passport. Priority processing is not applicable for applications lodged in Bangladesh.

What do I need?

- Completed the passport application online and print the entire form
- Ensure you have collected all the required documentation. We are unable to accept any incomplete passport applications.
 - Full birth certificate
 - Evidence that you are an Australian citizen
 - Identity documents with your photograph, signature and current residential address

For information on the following click on <https://bangladesh.embassy.gov.au/daca/consular.html>

- Guarantor occupation list
- Photograph guideline
- General Declaration (B11)
- List of additional identity documents

Required documents: Originals must be presented

- Birth Certificate (an extract, commemorative birth certificate or birth card) are not acceptable. Foreign language birth certificates must be translated into English by a Notary Public)
 - Citizenship certificate
 - Proof of your current residential address
 - A combination of other supporting documentation
-
- Once you have completed the above, make an appointment to lodge your passport application with us.